

Percentage of Foreign in America Shown by State Size and the Languages Spoken

This legend shows size approximations to correlate to the state sizes in the map above. The number represents a percentage. The size of the state in the map shows the percentage of foreign born people living there in relation to all of America. For example, there are 10,175,839 people living in California who were born in other countries. The total number of foreigners living in America are 40,085,029. California holds the highest percentage of foreigners in America, 25 percent, its size is double the size of the last legend size.